The Go Cart Wins Award in Best Shorts Film Competition

(Chicago, IL) – Kailyne Waters (Writer/Director) of Film Lore Studios and Amarak Productions, has won a prestigious Award of Excellence from The Best Shorts Film Competition. The award was given for Kailyne’s exciting and heartfelt animated short film, The Go Cart, which tells the story of a wounded shopping cart’s journey to find purpose and meaning in his life, and features exceptional animation, music, and narration. The award is the second for the film, which also received Best Animation from Lady’s First International Film Festival of Cork, Ireland.

“We are truly honored to be included in such a prestigious field of filmmakers and storytellers. The Go Cart is a universal story of resilience and the power of finding your own voice and celebrating our differences”, Waters remarked.

The Best Shorts Competition recognizes film, television, videography and new media professionals who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity, and those who produce standout entertainment or contribute to profound social change. Entries are judged by highly qualified professionals in the film and television industry. Information about Best Shorts and a list of recent winners can be found at www.BestShorts.net.

In winning a Best Shorts Award, The Go Cart joins the ranks of other high-profile winners of this internationally respected award including Disney Interactive for Vinylation: A Love Story and Oscar-winning production Mr. Hublot from Laurent Witz from Luxembourg. Rick Prickett, who chairs The Best Shorts Competition, had this to say about the latest winners, “Best Shorts is not an easy award to win. Entries are received from around the world from powerhouse companies to remarkable new talent. The Best Shorts Competition helps set the standard for craft and creativity. The judges were pleased with the exceptional high quality of entries. The goal of Best Shorts is to help winners achieve the recognition they deserve.”
